

Good afternoon SJS Community,

This was a great week to welcome students back to SJS! After a day or two of tired students readjusting back to school, the school looked alive once again near the end of the week. As an educator, I have always looked at the school year in chunks - the first few weeks of school, the time between Thanksgiving and Christmas, the end of the year after April Break, etc. I have always enjoyed this current 7-week chunk (before February Break) as a great time for learning and growth.

Reenrollment for the 2023-2024 school year is now open for kindergarten and above students. Please log on to the FACTS Parent Portal to complete. All reenrollments are due by January 18.
