

Good afternoon SJS Community,

One week of summer camps down and we have entered week two. There were lots of smiles last week and an awesome drama performance. Thank you to our teachers who run these amazing programs.

I am excited to announce that we have hired Mrs. Tricia Dembrowsky as our new lead preschool teacher for the 2024-2025 school year. Mrs. Dembrowsky, a Stoughton resident, has a BS in Elementary Education from Bridgewater State and has taken numerous education workshops at Emmanuel College. After staying home and raising her children, Mrs. Dembrowsky was the lead preschool teacher at St. Joseph School in Holbrook for five years. She is excited to return to the classroom, particularly in a Catholic preschool setting. A fun note – her husband graduated from SJS!

During my interview and our teacher's interview, Tricia showed a wonderful grasp of preschool philosophy, one that meshes well with our philosophy. She also had some wonderful new ideas. Mrs. Dembrowsky's former principal also gave her a glowing review. We are excited that Mrs. Dembrowsky will join Mrs. Perdios in our preschool classroom next year. We will have a meet and greet with Mrs. Dembrowsky before school in August.

Please make a final check of outstanding incidentals for the 2023-2024 school year. We close the fiscal year at the end of the month. We will also roll over FACTS by July 1 to the new school year.
