Top Seller Parent Testimonials:

"It's probably the easiest fundraiser I've done, The kids had so much fun being creative and making a video. All I did was pop it on my Facebook page with the VENMO info and my friends, eager for a chance to win, did the rest. Two of the chances we sold won and we raised over $600 for SJS."

"Our family had so much selling calendars last year! One simple post on Facebook generated over 90 calendar sales and for each one my son would get so excited!

It was amazing to see all of the people, near and far, who contributed and it was the perfect way to get out of state family involved who normally cannot participate."
