

Good morning SJS Community,

This week we had a nice return from February Break and welcomed March. We also celebrated Read Across America Day on Thursday. Our 8th graders shared a special book with each one of our classes. I also shared part of the Presidential Proclamation with all students in the morning. I think it hits on the importance of reading - click here to read the proclamation.

Our basketball teams are now fully immersed in the South Shore Playoffs and the St. John Attleboro Tournament. If you haven't heard, St. John School is hosting the boys' section of the South Shore Tournament so we have lots of games scheduled. If you are looking to root on our teams, Monday is a great opportunity – our Grade 3/4 Boys Team plays at 6:00 followed by our Grade 5/6 Boys Team at 7:00. Let's give them a nice home court advantage.

If you have not done so yet now is the time to purchase tickets for the SJS Gala! Come join the SJS Community on Saturday, March 25th for an amazing time. Go to <https://stjohnevangelist.ejoinme.org/GALA> to purchase tickets.

Also, SJS Spiritwear is available for purchase through Arrow Sports. The store will close on March 12. The link to order is <https://stjs2023.itemorder.com/shop/home/>.

And finally, please remember that the financial aid application for the 2023-2024 school year closes on March 10. It is currently open through FACTS - <https://factsmgt.com/aid>. Decisions will be made in early April.
