

Good afternoon SJS Community,

This week Student Council helped us celebrate World Kindness Day. It was great to celebrate and point out the kindness that occurs every day at St. John School. Lots of stickers were given out to many students. Thank you also to all our SJS Grandparents and our SJS Parent Group for our Slush Day today. We raised enough money from Grandparents Day that every child was afforded a slush.

Please remember two important events next week. First is the SJS Drama Club's production of Annie, Jr. Tickets are still available at <https://our.show/sjs-anniejr>. Click here for the official SJS poster. Also, Winter Clubs begin next week and there is still time to sign up. Click here for the options. Forms are due back to Mrs. Foster.

Speaking of next week, St. John School, along with Catholic schools and dioceses around the country, will celebrate Discover Catholic Schools Week. This is a nationally celebrated week each fall to publicly acknowledge the unique and special aspects of Catholic education. We have something in the Canton Citizen and will share some things online.

Last, but not least, Student Council will sponsor a Donation Dress Down on Friday (November 22). We will raise money for the Canton Food Pantry and St. Vincent de Paul, both amazing organizations that help those in need and need our support. Venmo @SJSCanton or send in a cash donation to dress down.
