

Good afternoon SJS Community,

We had a wonderful all school performance of The Little Mermaid yesterday. Congratulations to the cast and crew and good luck tonight and tomorrow. There are a few tickets left if you don't have tickets yet <https://our.show/sjs-lmj>.

This Sunday our Grade 2 students will celebrate their First Communion. Please join with me and our school community in offering our prayers and support for these students. Thank you to Mr. Francis who has prepared these students for this special event in their lives!

Field Trips

We have entered Field Trip season with all of our grades going somewhere exciting before the end of the year. This year, we are going to bill for all field trips before the field trip occurs (next week). This will allow us to clean up our receivables before the end of the school year. If your child ends up not attending the field trip, we will reimburse you.
